THIS JUST IN: Superman's done it again (or more specifically, Superman's pals at Warner Bros. TV Animation have done it again)! Seems that their SUPERMAN cartoon — airing on the Kids WB (check local listings) — has been nominated for a Daytime Emmy! Outstanding Special Class–Animated Program, to be exact, and the whole DCU has their fingers crossed that the Man of Steel will go home with the Gal of Gold (it's okay — Lois hopes he wins too)!

VERTIGO 'ELLO! Jenny Lee, the newest member of the Vertigo/Helix family, has a lotta print experience, knows computers and karate, which'll help her keep the books on time. Jenny assists Stuart Moore on Helix! like MICHAEL MOORCOCK'S MULTIVERSE, Alisa Kwitney on stuff like THE DREAMING, and Shelly Roeberg on INVISIBLES and HOUSE OF SECRETS. "I'm still at a point where I tie a ball of string to my office doorknob, then spool it out whenever I go to another floor so I can find my way back. (I'd use breadcrumbs, but, well, you know .. Witches.)"

AUNT MO: "Congratulations, you're an aunt!" the phone voice said, which struck Assistant Editor Maureen McTigue odd since her baby brother (6-foot/200-pound Chris) isn't married. It was Marco Palmieri, former DCer, who used to write our stuff for Previews and now is with Pocket Books helping edit their Star Trek line. Marco and his wife Doris are the proud parental units of Jeremy Noah, a 10-lb., 2-ounce, 23½-inch big guy born April 9 at 11:25. To quote papa: "This kid is sooo cute." Since Jeremy was, after all, conceived while Marco was at DC, we consider him an honorary DCer. Welcome to the DCU, Jeremy! Now get to work!

DIDJA KNOW?: Julius "Living Legend" Schwartz — the editor who first thunk that ONE Earth wasn't enough— still has an office at DC Comics! Julie comes in every Wednesday to tell us what we're doing wrong! And sometimes he even brings his pals with him... recently spotted roaming the storied corridors of 1700 Broadway: noted writer and bon vivant Harlan Ellison! Now, anyone who knows Harlan knows it's tough to get a compliment outta him — but when he saw the cover of POWER OF SHAZAM #29 (another masterpiece painted by Da Ordster himself), Mr. Ellison said: "Now THAT'S great!" We always knew Harlan had a soft spot for Marvel Bunnies!

OFF THE WALLS OF THE DCU!

BANKS FOR THE MEMORIES!

GREEN LANTERN penciller Darryl Banks sent the accompanying "photo" of himself as DARRYLAX (an homage to the Hal Jordan character Darryl himself named) to GL editor Kevin Dooley. Darryl said he's usually a lot more pumped up than this, and this isn't his regular costume but the one he uses when Para-sailing. (Darryl is a MUCH better penciller than he is a punster!)
